#Stand2Protect Peace Summit

August 1, 2016

Thank you for your interest in the #Stand2Protect Peace Summit at the United Nations.

The Summit has received a tremendous outpouring of support from across the globe. There has been an overwhelmingly positive response and request for speaking roles from community leaders, civil rights leaders, law enforcement officials, international leaders and diplomats, media personalities, and others.

Due to this demand, the decision has been made to POSTPONE the originally scheduled Tuesday, August 2, 2016 Peace Summit at the United Nations to a later date. This is being done to accommodate the schedules of potential speakers and attendees.

We believe the participation of these persons who have expressed an interest in participating will create a richer dialogue, will result in a more impactful Summit, and will help further the cause of bridging the growing divide between law enforcement officers and the communities they are sworn to protect and serve.

We apologize for any inconvenience. Our team is currently scheduling a new date which we plan to announce within the next few days.

Please direct your questions or comments to trust2protect@thebrewergroup.com

Again, thank you very much for your support of our #Stand2Protect campaign and the Peace Summit. We will be in contact soon!
